Rising Third Grade Summer Assignment

Parents/Guardians,

We are excited to welcome your student to third grade next year. Here are some suggestions to ensure that your student is prepared for 3rd grade and continues to learn and grow over the summer.

1. You may purchase a Summer Bridge Workbook which is available at local bookstores. Visit <http://www.summerbridgeactivities.org/> for more information.

2. Summer Reading Log

Rising third graders at F.B.A. are encouraged to read and log a minimum of 500 minutes during the summer months. Please use the reading log that is attached to this form to document your reading. Note specific instructions at the top of the form. This assignment is not mandatory and will not be taken for a grade. However, your student will receive a dress down pass if they turn in their completed reading log at the beginning of school next year.

The following book titles are merely suggestions:

Boxcar Children series

Little House on the Prairie series

Magic Tree House series

Ivy & Bean series

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

James and the Giant Peach

Mr. Popper's Penguins

Freckle Juice

Charlotte's Web

Ramona Quimby, Age 8

Stuart Little

Henry's Freedom Box

Non-Fiction Texts

3. Multiplication Practice

Memorizing multiplication facts (0-12) is a key component taught in 3rd grade, and below you will find some fun websites that will help give your child a head start for the 2016-2017 school year. Please visit these sites and begin multiplication fact practice over the summer.

3rd Grade Summer Reading Log

Rising third grade students at F.B.A. are encouraged to read a total of 500 minutes during the summer months. Please use this log to document summer reading. In addition to recording the number of minutes and title, students must write a sentence that summarizes what they read that day. Please include a parent signature before turning it in. Your student will receive a dress down pass at the beginning of next year for completing the log.
